FLYING PALACE READY FOR RACE

LUXURIOUS AIRPLANE IS BUILT BY L. C. BRAND AND WILL BE ENTERED IN CONTEST

120 MILES IS EASY

CRAFT OF MAHOGANY, PLATED AND PLUSH AND IS MOST ATTRACTIVE BUILT

L. C. Brand's palace car airplane was rolled out of his hangar in northwest Glendale yesterday, on to the flying field, which is just south of Brand's residence. It is mahogany finished, nickel plated and plush lined, "attractive as a June bride."

It is all tuned up, ready to take part in the 210-mile, non-stop race to San Diego and return on Washington's birthday, February 22. Predictions are freely heard, it is said, that the trip will be made in two hours as the big plane can easily go 120 miles an hour.

Luxurious in Appointments

Mr. Brand began his flying experience two years ago when he had his Mono Eagle built to make trips in between his Glendale home and the big ranch on Mono lake, near Bishop.

After flying in this for some months he decided that he wanted something finer and faster, so he gave orders for the construction of the flying palace that has just been completed.

It is said to be the most luxurious airship in all its appointments that has yet been constructed.

MRS. HENDERSON

LARGE NUMBER OF FRIENDS AT FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR BELOVED WOMAN

Solmenly impressive were the funeral services held yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Alice C. Henderson, who passed away last Monday morning at 632½ East Broadway.

Services were held in the Little Church of the Flowers, with Rev. H. F. Hoyt in charge. The church was filled to over-flowing, for friends came from all sections of the south, a great number being from Glendale and Eagle Rock City.

Mrs. Henderson was born February 1, 1853, at Wooster, Ohio. She was the widow of the late R. R. Henderson, former city clerk of Eagle Rock City. She was a resident of Eagle Rock City for about nine years, going to Los Angeles, then coming to Glendale last August. The only surviving member of the family is Howard C. Henderson of this city. Mrs. Henderson came to Glendale to be near her only sister, Mrs. J. D. Hull.

In Congregational Church

While in Eagle Rock City, where she was a general favorite among a large number of friends, Mrs. Henderson was a member of the Congregational church which, at that time, was in charge of Rev. Hoyt. Later Rev. Hoyt went to Los Angeles. Because of the high regard in which she held the pastor, arrangements were made for him to take part in the services yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Henderson's husband died in November, 1916, and it was Rev. Hoyt who paid the final tribute at the services.

Mrs. Peter H. Ducker, a sweet-voiced singer, took part in the services yesterday, for she was a close friend of Mrs. Henderson and greatly admired her character. Mrs. Ducker sang very feelingly "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Abide With Me."

Eloquent Tribute Paid

Rev. Hoyt delivered a very touching discourse in which he pointed out the remarkably even disposition possessed by Mrs. Henderson, how she was ever willing to make personal sacrifices for others and how she was, by her every act, a true Christian. The pastor's tribute was eloquently and feelingly expressed.

Evidence of the great regard in which Mrs. Henderson was held by a large number of people was shown in the wealth of floral offerings. They were many and came from various parts of the south. The body was cremated. The arrangements were in charge of the Pulliam & Kiefer Undertaking company.

BREIF OUTLINE IS MADE UP FOR CITY TRUSTEES AND WILL BE CONSIDERED

Members of the Board of City Trustees have been furnished this week with copies of a report prepared by T. W. Watson, city manager, on the cost of improvements to Glendale's water system to be paid for out of the $260,000 water bond fund.

The report shows that so far the total of $233,031.57 has been expended. The city manager states that when the improvements contracted for are completed, they will constitute a water supply independent of the Verdugo canyon source that will furnish a flow of 666 miner's inches, which in itself would be sufficient, he says, for the present and the immediate future needs of Glendale.

Report Is Given in Full

The report of the city manager, as furnished the city trustees, follows:

"We submit herewith cost of improvements to water system that are to be paid for out of the $260,000 water bond fund. This includes all improvements for which contracts have been let or materials purchased and city departments authorized to do the work. These figures are substantially correct, but may vary slightly as to the amount of some items as exact figures cannot be obtained at this time. They indicate, however, in a general way how matters stand with regard to these expenditures to date.

"Second pumping unit, $33,300.

"Large reservoir, including cost of site, incidental expenses and engineering, $70,624.65.

"Thirty-inch trunk line on Grand View avenue will cost complete, including engineering and inspection, $44,149.30.

Brother And Sister Meet For First Time In Thirty-Two Years

For the first time in thirty-two years, Mrs. J. A. Porter, 125 West Chestnut, Glendale, yesterday saw her brother, R. Goff, of Schenectady, N. Y.

They met in Los Angeles upon Mr. Goff's arrival from the east on a vacation of six months. He is a representative of the John Hancock Life Insurance company of Boston.

Mr. Goff identified his sister from a picture she had sent him and he, having but one arm, was quickly identified by her. They met for the first time since they separated in Elmira, N. Y., and the reunion is proving a most happy one.

This city is proving most attractive to Mr. Goff, he says, and it may be that he will decide to locate here.

MRS. S. A. HENDEE

PASSES AWAY AT HOME OF HER DAUGHTER, MRS. W. F. TOWER, MANY MOURN DEATH

Mrs. Sidnie A. Hendee, who passed away yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Tower, 328 North Maryland avenue, was born in Bucks county, Pa., October 8, 1843. She was married twice. Her first husband was John W. Snyder. Of this union seven children were born. One died in infancy. The rest came to maturity and occupied positions of usefulness and honor. Five survive her, Harry M., of Los Angeles; Horace M., principal of manual training work in Brooklyn, N. Y., schools; Walter G., of Jackson, Mich.; Mrs. Ida M., wife of W. F. Tower of Glendale; Sadie R., wife of Prof. Frank Lahey of Boston.

Left alone by the early death of her husband, Mrs. Hendee bravely struggled against great odds and provided a good education for her children. In 1911 she married Judge E. B. Hendee of Vineland, N. J. His death occurred in 1914.

Comes to Glendale

The following year she came to Glendale with her daughter's family and had always liked Glendale and its people.

For nearly fifty years she was a devoted and consistent member of the Seventh-day Adventist church. Besides her children, grandchildren, nephews and nieces, three brothers and two sisters, a host of friends, both in Glendale and in the east will join in honoring her memory.

EX-SERVICE MEN ORGANIZE CLUB

ROBERT E. ROWLEY IS CHOSEN AS CHAIRMAN; J. F. M'BRYDE SELECTED SECRETARY

FAVOR LINEBERGER

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE NAMED TO CARRY ON CAMPAIGN FOR FORMER OFFICER

The meeting called for last night in Attorney J. F. McBryde's office to form a Lineberger-for-Congress club among the ex-service men was largely attended.

Robert E. Rowley was chosen as chairman and J. F. McBryde, secretary. A committee was appointed to draw up resolutions endorsing Major Walter F. Lineberger's candidacy for congressman from the ninth district and another to send out circulars to every ex-service man in Glendale and vicinity urging each one to see as many voters as is possible and urge their attendance at the polls.

Enthusiasm ran high and there were many strong condemnations of the unwarranted attack on Major Lineberger's war record by a C. H. Randall speaker.

Executive Committee

An executive committee to handle the campaign for the ex-service men was appointed, as follows: R. E. Rowley, James F. McBryde, Owen C. Emery, Gerhard Kaemmerling, Dr. Harry V. Brown, Capt. W. B. Kelly, Dru Nicoles, Emil O. Kiefer, Robert C. Plume and Earl W. Patterson. Other names may be added later.

The ex-service men are thoroughly aroused to the vital necessity of Major Lineberger's election and seem to be for him to a man, regardless of political affiliations. They are taking upon themselves a most necessary and important task, that of getting out the vote.

BUILDING AND LOAN

ASSOCIATION TO BE FORMED BY FIRST NATIONAL BANK TO AID HOMESEEKERS

It will be officered and controlled by members of this bank's force and the headquarters will be there.

PIONEER TELLS OF EARLY DAYS

W. W. GILBERT, AGED 89 YEARS, VISITS FRIENDS IN CITY AND MAY LOCATE

TRIP OVER PLAINS

DIARY OF JOURNEY TO THIS STATE IN 1853 PUT IN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

W. W. Gilbert, who was one of the pioneers who came to California during the time of the discovery of gold, 1849, in the northern part of the state, was a visitor in Glendale yesterday, calling on his friend, George B. Dart, and other acquaintances in this city. Mr. Gilbert is looking for a home here, he says.

The diary which Mr. Gilbert kept as he followed a prairie schooner trail over plain and mountain to the gold fields of California in 1853 has made a valuable addition to the manuscript department of the Minnesota Historical society. It tells of the route through the settlements of "wildest Iowa," across the Platte river country, over the Rocky mountains, stopping at Salt Lake City, where he heard Brigham Young preach. The diary tells tales of the country through which they passed, gives records of the Indian tribes along the way, and descriptive matter of the vast stretches that were traveled. Dangers, hardships, and sudden death are treated as part of the day's routine.

Forty-five Persons in Party

The party included forty-five people and ninety horses. Their destination was Hangtown, California, later known as Placerville.

The caravan started from Milwaukee, April 15, 1853, and reached its destination, Placerville, October 5, having been only ten days less than seven months on the way. The party saw the first gold mining operations in the Sierra Nevada range on September 26. Not a man, woman or child in the party was missing at the end of the trip.

Three years of life as a gold miner was enough and Mr. Gilbert started for his home in Wisconsin, via the Nicaraguan route.

After serving in the Civil war with the First Wisconsin volunteer infantry, he married, and for the next five years tried his hand at farming.

Goes in Grocery Business

In 1869 he moved to Rochester, Minnesota, and in 1872 embarked in the grocery business there, continuing in that line for twenty-eight years.

His first vote was cast in 1854 for

Mrs. Harriet Van Fleet and Mrs. Laura Goldsmith were initiated into the tent, and Messrs. Presty O. Lucas, Arthur J. Van Wie and William W. Dutton, members of N. P. Banks Camp, No. 22, were obligated as associate members.

After closing the meeting, the assemblage witnessed the installation of the newly-elected officers of N. P. Banks Camp, No. 22, Sons of Veterans. Installing Officer George O. Lockwood performed the impressive ceremony in a most excellent manner, and was roundly congratulated for his work.

Among the out-of-town guests were Division Commander Wm. H. Hyden, Division Secretary John A. Medlar and C. W. Hawthorne.

Coffee and cakes were served.

TO SELL GABY DESLYS' HOME

LONDON—The late Gaby Deslys' beautiful London house and furniture are to be disposed of and the sale will mean more thousands for the poor of Marseilles, who benefit under the will.

"Few houses in London," said one of the agents who are disposing of the property, "have been furnished so remarkably. The style is extreme and everything is almost as exactly as the actress left it when she was last staying in London."

One of the features of the house is the "gold" bathroom and gilded bath. Then there is a wonderful boudoir. All the panelings and decorations are unique.

Her gilded bed is of a kind that few women have ever possessed, and included in the furnishings are the gifts which were showered upon her throughout her brilliant career.

VICTIM OF BANDIT

AL JENNINGS, REFORMED, BUT ONCE ROBBER, IS HELD UP IN BROOKLYN, HE SAYS

Residents of Glendale who recall when Al Jennings, reformed train robber and bandit, appeared in Glendale several years ago to assist Rev. Troy, evangelist, hold a series of meetings at the Baptist church, may be interested in learning that Jennings, according to a dispatch, has admitted he had been victimized in New York by "an inconsiderate, discourteous" member of his forsaken profession. Returning to his hotel from Brooklyn, Jennings was accosted by a shabby individual and found himself at the unfamiliar end of a "six gun." He obeyed with celerity the usual "hands up" command, then sought immunity by divulging his identity.

"Oh, come on now," he pleaded in a friendly manner, "I'm Al Jennings."

"Never mind the guff," returned the other, lifting a jewel and a roll of bills from Jennings' pockets, "I'm President Wilson.

"There now, I'm leaving you a dime—beat it!"

And now they are very desirous of making their home here. When they go back to King City it will be with the purpose, they say, of disposing of their property there and coming to Glendale.

The association includes in its membership 300 hotels in the ninth congressional district. In speaking of the action, members of the committee stated that it was their belief a staunch Republican would be more able to represent the district during the next two years, owing to the fact that both houses of congress and the executive branch of government is to be overwhelmingly Republican.

Encouraging Increase Noted In Production Of Crops Over World

An encouraging increase is noted in world production of most crops compared with that of 1919.

Wheat production in thirty-one countries totals 2,763,536,000 bushels. A year ago twenty-eight of these same countries had reported at this time, whose production was 2,571,488,000 bushels. This year it is 2,671,807,000 bushels. These twenty-eight countries produce 74 per cent of the world crop.

Rye production was 544,503,000 bushels in sixteen countries reporting. Of these, fourteen which produce about 39 per cent of the world crop, raised 452,802,000 bushels in 1920, compared with 481,435,000 in 1919. Russia and Austria are both heavy producers of rye, but no statistics are available from either.

Oats aggregated 3,115,000,000 bushels in 1920, from twenty-two countries. For nineteen of these, normally producing 64 per cent of the world output, the returns show 2,439,267,000 in 1919.

Barley production in twenty-two reporting countries was 768,432,000 bushels. Nineteen of these countries for which estimates are available for both 1920 and 1919 show 732,514,000 bushels in 1920, and 643,430,000 the preceding year.

Corn was 3,760,657,000 bushels in fourteen countries. There are comparable returns for eleven of these, which, between 1909 and 1913, produced 80 per cent of the world crop. Their production in 1920 was 3,703,342,000 bushels, compared with 3,314,029,000 bushels in 1919.

Potatoes in fourteen countries was about 1,500,000,000 bushels. Ten of these countries, usually producing 17 per cent of the total, raised 1,032,000,000 bushels in 1920, and 992,257,000 in 1919. Returns are not available yet from most of the potato producing countries.

Most of all these gains in cereals are outside of Europe. Of the belligerents, France shows the greatest recovery. It has more wheat, barley and oats than in 1919, but far less than its pre-war average.

German, Hungarian and Italian production shows a sad falling off as compared with 1919. Rye is one of Germany's principal crops, and, in fact, is the bread grain, but the production in 1920 was only 193,000,000 bushels, compared with 222,000,000 the year before and a pre-war average of 445,000,000 bushels.

FOUND AFTER 25-YEAR HUNT

BURLINGTON, Iowa—W. E. Erwin, a traveling salesman, has returned home from Washington, where he said he met his two daughters, now married, whom he had not seen since 1896, when the girls, then three and five years old, were, he alleged, taken away by their mother from the family home in Oquawka, Ill. Erwin said he had received word recently that one of his daughters was living in Washington. Going to that city he said he found her, ending a twenty-five-year search. She is Mrs. Reba Darrell, wife of a Washington newspaper man, Erwin said.

The other daughter, Mrs. Mariam Fritch, lives in Lynn, Mass.

CHURCH SUPPER

BRIEF GATHERING IS HELD AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN; STUDY BIBLE

The church night supper at Central Christian last night was not so largely attended as usual, owing to the fact that so many went early to the Capt. Richmond P. Hobson lecture, but there was fine fellowship and an enjoyable time. The Bible study, completing the book of Galatians, viewed from a historical standpoint, was intensely interesting. There was an early dismissal to allow all who wished to hear a part of the Hobson lecture to do so.

RUSS MONEY HELD WORTHLESS

DETROIT—Unscrupulous foreign exchange brokers from New York and Chicago are flooding Detroit with Russian soviet rubles, according to a high federal official. He declares the currency is worthless.

The shrewd financiers are preying upon the immense Russian and Russian Jew population of the city, selling the worthless "money" for any price they can get, it is alleged.

Since the federal reserve board and the federal reserve bank of New York have paved the way, with the approval of the state and treasury departments, to trade in soviet rubles, Detroit has become the Mecca of the country's "sharpers," the official said.

Authorities here have been notified to watch for two Russians who left New York last week with rubles having a face value of more than $1,000,000. The men were bound for Detroit, the warning said.

Another man recently visited all the large banks and trust companies and attempted to sell rubles at any price, but not a single institution would take them.

United States government officials advise persons with relatives in Russia to consult some reputable banker before attempting to send soviet rubles to their relatives.

FIX M'KINLEY BIRTH DATE

CANTON, O. — Close personal friends and former neighbors of President William McKinley, whose home was in this city, scouted stories that the martyred president was born February 16 instead of January 29, the date generally observed. They said the controversy over the date of his birth had come up before and had resulted from a typographical error made in the Congressional directory years ago. The date as recorded on the McKinley mausoleum here is January 29. This date, it was pointed out, was verified at the time of the issuance of the official sketch of McKinley, sent out by the McKinley Memorial association.

PRODUCTION ON DECREASE

SAN FRANCISCO—The nation is cutting its timber four times as fast as it is growing, C. L. Hill of the United States forest service, told the delegates to the convention of the National Association of Tie Producers. Production has passed its peak in the pine forests of the southern states, he said, and within ten years these forests will produce only enough for regional requirements.

"We cannot stop using lumber, nor should we," Hill said, "but the crime of our generation is that after taking the timber, the lands are left in such condition they will produce no more timber, and in a very great portion of the area, not anything else."

POPE DECORATES OFFICERS

NEW YORK — Eight Knights of Columbus, officers who distinguished themselves in war and reconstruction work, have been decorated by Pope Benedict.

The decorations, received by Supreme Secretary William J. McGinley, include a collar of commander in the order of St. Gregory the Great for Joseph C. Pelletier, supreme advocate of the Knights of Columbus and District Attorney of Boston, and seven crosses of the same order for other officers.

The decorations were presented by Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty here.

HIGHEST MORTALITY RATE

WASHINGTON — The mortality rate among prohibition enforcement agents is higher than that of the world war, Wayne B. Wheeler, anti-Saloon League counsel, declared before a Senate appropriations committee, urging better pay for the prohibition field agents. "Fewer than one-half of one per cent of the men under arms in the last war lost their lives," he said. "A larger percentage of the men who do the field work in gathering this evidence have been killed."

BLIND GIRL WINS HONORS

NEW YORK — Born sightless and believed mentally defective fourteen years ago, Rosalie Copen graduated from Public School No. 127 in Brooklyn, distinguished as the only blind child who ever succeeded in winning a diploma in one of the city's elementary or grammar schools. She ranked 100 per cent in all her scholastic studies except English, in which she was marked 90 per cent.

She is an accomplished musician and dancer, skilled in domestic science and adept with the needle, having made the graduation dress she wore. The girl plans to attend high school and later enter college to prepare herself as a teacher for the blind. All her school work is typewritten.

LIVESTOCK VALUE FALLS OFF

WASHINGTON—Values of livestock on farms and ranges in the United States has decreased more than two and a quarter billion dollars during the last year and the amount of livestock about ten billion, according to estimates announced by the department of agriculture.

Cattle and sheep decreased in number more than 4 per cent and swine decreased more than 7 per cent. There was a decrease in value of more than half a billion dollars for other cattle, while swine showed a decrease of about half a billion dollars and sheep almost a quarter of a billion dollars.

SAY WEEDY LAWNS DOOMED

KINGSTON, R. I.—Discovery of the long-sought fertilizer that will grow grass and kill weeds is announced by the experiment station of Rhode Island State college as the result of twenty years of research. The realization of the dream of gardeners the world over—a weedless lawn—is possible without trouble or expense, according to the official college statement, merely by the use of ammonium sulphate instead of nitrate of soda in annual application of fertilizer. The announcement said:

"By using ammonium sulphate, the required amount of nitrogen is furnished and the soil kept in the acid condition under which the grass develops best, but the weeds are so weakly fed that they are crowded out."

LIGHT DANGEROUS

CITRUS FRUIT AND FOLIAGE INJURED BY FUMIGATION WHEN IN SUNLIGHT

While it has long been known that the presence of light during fumigation of citrus fruit with hydrocyanic acid is one of the factors which causes injury to both fruit and foliage, it has not been known that light before and after fumigation has a similar effect. This fact has been disclosed by recent tests conducted in California by specialists of the United States department of agriculture who have made a report of the experiments with suggestions for preventing injury, in department bulletin No. 907, "Fumigation of Citrus Plants With Hydrocyanic Acid; Conditions Influencing Injury."

Moisture and temperature, as well as light, influence fumigation injury and experiments show that fumigation is more safely performed at temperatures below 80 degrees F. It has long been known that citrus trees are less liable to injury from hydrocyanic acid gas fumigation when treated at night.

Diffused Light Desirable

The bulletin points out that, in order to prevent injury due to sunlight, diffused light or darkness both before and after fumigation is desirable.

Sunshine fumigation can be conducted with safety, the department's specialists say, only by proper regulation of the amount of gas used and length of exposure. Moisture on citrus plants does not increase the degree of injury, and an application of cold water on plants in hot sunshine immediately prior to fumigation appears to reduce slightly the effect of the gas. Sudden changes of temperature over a wide range during exposure tend greatly to increase plant injury. Trees in wet soil are likely to be more severely injured than are healthy trees in dry soil. Therefore, irrigation should follow rather than precede fumigation, according to the bulletin.

CALLS FOR BIBLES LARGE

NEW YORK—The largest budget in over 100 years was announced by General Secretary Frank H. Mann for the American Bible society. It amounts to $1,222,367, and is called for by the very great demand for Bibles and Bible distribution in all parts of the world. Even Turks are calling for Bibles.

The war has created a famine of Bibles in certain parts of the world, especially in Austria and central Europe. The adoption of the new phonetic script in China will provide millions of new readers in the next few years. Children can learn the new script in three or four hours, and illiterate men and women in as many weeks.

The American Bible society is 105 years old and has issued 140,000,000 copies of the scriptures in 150 languages and dialects.

MAKES OBJECTION

STATE TREASURER SAYS THAT HE HAS NOT RECOMMENDED INCREASE IN BUDGET

State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson has written to the tax league protesting against the inference in their advertising that all of the state officers approve of the proposed eighty-one million dollar budget. Richardson says he is not a member of the budget board and has not recommended the increase proposed to the legislature.

In a letter to Herbert W. Clark and M. V. Hill, president and secretary of the Tax Investigators and Economy league, Richardson, says:

"In your advertising in the newspapers you refer to 'a burden prepared for our backs by state office holders' and to 'an additional $15,000,000 now demanded from us by state officers.' These statements have caused people to infer that all state officers, and the treasurer among them, are responsible for and approve the proposed $81,387,692.51 budget. I am not a member of the budget board, had no part in its deliberations and have neither approved nor recommended the increase proposed. The inferences to be drawn from your statements are unfair to me and other officials who took no part in the making of the budget. I have consistently advocated economy in state government and believe the serious conditions now confronting the people demand the practice of rigid economy in public affairs. I have tried to practice what I preach by conducting my office economically."

Harding Has To Pay Large Income Tax As U. S. Chief Executive

W. G. Harding, as president, will receive something like $18,000 less compensation annually than Woodrow Wilson received. The treasury will pay Mr. Harding the same amount it pays Mr. Wilson—$75,000—but internal revenue officials say Mr. Harding must return nearly one-fourth in income tax.

President Wilson was exempted from the income tax under a supreme court ruling because he came into office before enactment of the 1918 revenue laws, under which taxes were sought to be imposed on the salaries of the president and one of the federal judges. The supreme court held the tax could not be collected in the case of incumbents because of the constitutional inhibition against reduction of the salaries of the executive and federal judges during their term.

The solicitor general has ruled that the tax could be collected from officials taking office after the law became effective because that would not bring about any reduction in salary during the term of office.

Revenue bureau officials say Mr. Harding, of course, will be allowed the usual exemption of $2000 a year for a married man and may claim certain business exemptions. Placing his exemption at $2000 yearly, however, they figure his normal income tax at $5480, and his surtax at $12,940, a total of $18,420.

AWAY NIGHTS; BACK MORNINGS

VIENNA — An extraordinary and amusing picture of prison life in Upper Silesia was revealed by the hearing of evidence against a warden charged with receiving stolen goods and neglecting his jailership.

At this particular jail the chief warder was not in the habit of searching the prisoners, with the result that a woman smuggled a considerable sum of money into her cell and provided the chief warder with the wherewithal for providing food for her.

Defects in the cell grating, coupled with the loose construction of the ventilator, enabled the prisoners to visit each other in their cells and hold picnics, while there was even one case of a man who escaped each night from the prison and returned again in the morning.

The chief warder, when charged in Wels police court with allowing all this to go on, denied all knowledge of it, but was sentenced to four months' imprisonment.

The Dominion of New Zealand has bought land and houses for its returned soldiers, lent them money for the purchase of farming materials, stock, tools and furniture, provided training for the unskilled and helped in many other ways.

CROWN IN DANGER

FICKLE GREEK POPULACE MAY CHANGE ITS MIND; THEN MONARCH WOULD GO

ATHENS—Despite the fact that 95 per cent of the Greek people voting favored the return of King Constantine, the Hellenic crown rests lightly upon the alleged pro-German ruler's head.

Constantine is back. Back to stay, according to the Royalists. But underneath the surface is an undercurrent that allied statesmen predict will make his future reign tempestuous.

The Greek people brought Constantine back for two reasons. First, according to competent observers, because they were tired of the misrule of Venizelist partisans; secondly, because Constantine had been forcibly expelled and their vanity had been pricked.

For days preceding the plebiscite, and prior to the election the notional watchword was "Erchete—he is coming." Today is is "Irthai—we have brought him." Tomorrow, a prominent Greek admiral who has served in diplomatic capacities in Paris and London, said, it may be "We have kicked him out."

Temper of Greek Soldier

A most significant observation noted by many, is the temper of the Greek soldier. Thousands were brought to Athens from Smyrna after the elections to participate in the plebiscite and welcome the king.

Several battalions mobilized were for return to the front. The regulars, who for more than a week have not been subject to military discipline upon order by M. Demetrius Gounaris, minister of war, were surly and sullen. They chanted:

"He is here. We have brought him. Now we are going back."

On the other hand, the new recruits marched forward singing the Constantine song, "The Son of the Eagle," and carried placards and pictures of Constantine.

Entente military observers stationed with the Greek army declare the morale has been maintained by constant assurance by Venizelists that they would soon occupy Constantinople and restore the standard of the Byzantine Empire over the Mosque where now flies the Star and Crescent.

King's Hold on People

King Constantine's hold on the people is half religious, half superstitious. In the folklore runs the legend that some day a king and warrior named Constantine will wrest from the Turks the capital Constantine the Great died defending. The peasant, filled with Royalist propaganda, believes that the present king is destined to be that crusader.

If Constantine goes to war—at present—he will have a war-weary population and a bankrupt exchequer back of him, assuming the entente fails to foot the bill. On the other hand, if he fails, he will have a disillusioned populace to explain matters to. Venizelos has a record to point out—thousands of square miles added to the national domain. He also has a record of ignominious flight to erase. But so did Constantine—and he came back.

Would Smash Army Morale

Withdrawal of allied credit would shoot the Greek army's morale to pieces, officials declare while relinquishment of the Greek irredentist dream of Constantinople would eliminate the incentive that has kept the nation and its unreclaimed populations united through more than eight continuous years of war.

If the allies adopt an obstructionist policy, Greek statement will be faced with the alternative of repudiating Constantine or forsaking their fondest dreams of an Irredentist Greece. Loyalists, headed by Gounaris and others, are for the latter. They believe Greec has bitten off a bigger bite of Turkey than she can digest. On the other hand they have Constantine to contend with. His policies are entirely Irredentist and imperialistic.

MAKES VICTIM GIVE UP BIBLE

CHICAGO—"What else have you got?" asked a bandit after he had taken $15 and a gold watch from Rev. Lee Wilcox.

"I've got a Bible," the minister said.

"I guess I need it worse than you do," the robber declared. "Hand it over."

"I forgive the misguided bandit," Wilcox told the police. "I hope he reads that Bible."

The passage of the migratory bird law has resulted in a saving of $20,000,000 in food to the United States, according to the Department of Agriculture.

FOR HIGH CLIMB

EXPEDITION PLANS TO START NEXT YEAR IN ATTEMPT TO SCALE MOUNT EVEREST

Mount Everest, the highest peak in the world, is to be climbed.

The expedition will probably start next year. No white man has been within forty or fifty miles of Mt. Everest, which is "29,002 feet above sea level," according to the geography books of school-time days.

The conquest of this inaccessible peak will be undertaken by the Royal Geographical society and the Alpine club and a committee representing both societies is now meeting in London to plan details.

Sir Francis Younghusband, president of the Royal Geographical society, when announcing this expedition, said that the project would take two years at the least. The first year would be spent in discovering the "geography" of Everest, exploring the approaches to the mountain, and in collecting all possible information regarding the surrounding mountains before it was attempted to scale the summit of the peak.

Obtain Government Consent

In past years there have been political as well as natural obstacles in the way of such an expedition. But now the consent of the Indian government has been obtained and, more important, the Dalai Llama has given sanction to the exploration.

Dr. A. M. Kellas, Harold Roeburn, Major Rawling and General Bruce are four of the probable starters. The explorers hope to interest the Indian government in the scheme, so that aeroplanes will be placed at their disposal for reconnaisance purposes. Whether it is possible for airplanes to land and rise on those snowy heights will have to be determined by experts. It is hoped that they will be able to drop supplies.

To Face Many Dangers

It is not yet known whether the climbers will be able to stand the rarified atmosphere at such a great altitude long enough to reach the summit. The highest point in the Himalayan range ever reached was when the duke of Abruzzi fitted out a model expedition and climbed to a height of 24,600 feet. He had to descend owing to bad weather and snow.

Many dangers beset the path of the explorers, including blizzards, rocky precipices and terrible avalanches. In 1905 a party headed by Dr. Longstaff attempted the Gurla Mandhata and reached as high as 24,000 feet, when they were carried down in a great avalanche for 1500 feet, successfully jumping two small cliffs in their descent.

HOME ACCEPTED FOR ENVOY

WASHINGTON—The home of J. P. Morgan in London has been accepted as a permanent residence for the American ambassador to the court of St. James. The diplomatic bill was passed by the house without roll call.

MONEY TO GIVE

COLLECTOR OF REVENUE HAS COIN TO RETURN PEOPLE; CANNOT FIND THEM

Collector of Internal Revenue J. P. Carter has money to give away, providing he can find the legal owners, and he is experiencing no end of trouble in tracing them. In the past month Chief Deputy Collector Scott Carter, son of the collector, has mailed 1700 income tax refund checks to persons who overpaid the taxes due the government.

Many of the envelopes containing the refund checks are being returned to the collector by the mail carriers who cannot locate the persons to whom they were addressed. Collector Carter will retain possession of the checks for three months before voiding them, hoping that the persons for whom they are intended will be found. The checks range from 50 cents to $100.

ASKS TO BE SENT TO PRISON

NEW YORK—"Please, your honor, send me back to Sing Sing. I plead guilty, and, anyway, I'd like to go." Such was the plea of Benjamin Koch, arrested for burglary. "I was there for four years," he explained, "and I got used to it. I don't have to dodge authorities up there and I see good movies at night." Magistrate Sweetser thought he could accommodate him. In fact, he did.

Another Glendale winter resident well known to Mr. Gilbert is J. B. Tabour, 1315 North Louise. Mr. Tabour has a home in Minneapolis also.

Mr. Gilbert is preparing an article on conditions of today, the basis being a comparison with conditions of sixty-five years ago.

Although 89 years of age, Mr. Gilbert is as vigorous as a man of 60 and possesses a remarkable memory. He has a very interesting collection of newspaper clippings and letters from such notables as Theodore Roosevelt and ex-Governor Van Sant of Minnesota relative to his wonderful experiences in the gold days of California.

Glendale has made a great impression on him, says Mr. Gilbert, and he is anxious to locate here.

BUSINESS IS GOOD

JANUARY RECEIPTS OF TAX SALES DIVISION INDICATE PROSPERITY OF SOUTH

Business in southern California is good. The January receipts of the sales tax division in the office of J. P. Carter, collector of internal revenue, prove it. The prosperity of the southland is bared in the report just made public.

According to the monthly report for the sales tax division, made by E. M. Cohee, chief deputy in charge, the tax on sales of all kinds for the month totaled $1,041,742.34.

Three items showed a big increase in the monthly collections. These were most noticeable in the tax on admissions to motion picture houses and theatres and for lodge dues, the dealers' luxury tax and for jewelry.

Luxury and Jewelry Tax

Taxes collected for admissions and lodge dues totaled $235,678.83, for dealers' luxury tax $83,094.42, and for the jewelry tax $132,762.61.

The amount collected for soft drinks and ice cream lagged behind, but this is ascribed to the cold nights and cloudy days. The tax for the month amounted to $46,747.94.

The transportation tax compared favorably with past months, the amount collected being $408,632.26. And the manufacturers' excise tax revealed a similar healthy color, the amount of tax money collected being $121,900.29. The insurance tax collected footed $12,915.99.

BLACK BEAR STOPS SERVICE

PIEDMONT, W. Va.—The trapping and slaying of a black bear weighing 288 pounds broke up a service in a church nearby, at Henry, on the Western Maryland railroad, south of this place.

The bear had been carrying off pigs, calves and sheep, and Arnold Stahl set a trap. En route to the church with friends, Stahl stopped to look at the trap and found a bear standing in it. The animal was a whopper. Revolver shots only infuriated bruin, who became frenzied and would probably have attacked the party had not a rifle been procured. Several well-directed shots ended the bear.

In the meantime, several hundred persons who had assembled for the church service were attracted to the scene.

The trip of the American naval balloon, A-5598, from Rockaway to Moose Factory cost the United States Government $8,740.

SECTION 1. All that portion of that first alley east of Canada Boulevard, from the northerly line of Hiawatha Drive to the southerly line of Wabasso Way, said alley being one hundred and sixty (160) feet easterly and parallel to the easterly line of Canada Boulevard.

The district to be assessed to pay the damages, costs and expenses for the described improvement is described in and reference is hereby made to Resolution No. 1185 for further particulars of said work.

HOBSON LECTURES

HERO OF MERRIMAC TALKS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ON EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT

Demonstrating that he was not only a hero in the Spanish-American war, but is also possessed of graces of oratory, Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Merrimac fame, formerly captain in the American navy, last night delivered a lecture at a union meeting in the Presbyterian church on the subject of "The Crisis."

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the Presbyterian church, presided at the meeting and special music was furnished by an organist and a quartet. The opening prayer was by Rev. H. C. Funk, pastor of the First English Lutheran church, while the benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. M. Crist, pastor of the First Methodist church.

At the close of his talk, Captain Hobson had pledge cards distributed to be signed by those willing to give a monthly contribution to the Anti-Saloon League. The speaker expressed his appreciation of the large audience, gave thanks to the Ministerial association for permitting the union meeting and also thanks for the use of the Presbyterian church.

Proves Powerful Speaker

Captain Hobson proved himself, according to many expressions heard after the meeting, a remarkably interesting and powerful orator. His address was an exposition of the methods he charges are employed by the liquor interests of the world in their attempts to nullify the value of the eighteenth amendment and discredit the basic law of the country.

"There is no 'wave of crime' in this country," he declared. "That is a pure fiction created by the liquor interests and spread broadcast with the aid of millions of money in an attempt to show that the eighteenth amendment is causing lawlessness. Statistics will show that crime has decreased forty-five per cent in this country. In Chicago two courts have been closed and statements made by prison officials indicate that the number of criminals being committed to their institutions is being very materially reduced."

Plays People of State

Captain Hobson flayed the people of California for their defeat of the Harris enforcement act, stating that that was a victory for the liquor interests and a very dangerous precedent to set. He brought out some very disquieting facts as to the activities of the liquor interests in other portions of the globe, stating that a large part of the machinery from the dismantled breweries was being shipped to China, where an attempt is being made to have liquor sold in every store throughout that great land. In Africa the situation is equally dangerous, he said, with rum being used as legal tender in certain sections and being shipped by the trainload into the country.

"The temptation," he said, "is great for the unprincipled. A poison that can be manufactured for a few cents a gallon, is being sold for $35 a quart in this country, making it one of the easiest ways to make money."

Again he stated with emphasis, "If this curse is allowed to spread through the heathen nations of the earth, the church will soon have no missionary problem, for there will be no heathen to Christianize; they will all go the way of the red man of our land who has become the victim of the white man's rum."

Powerful Appeal to People

Captain Hobson closed his stirring address with a powerful appeal to the right thinking, law abiding people of the nation to rise in defense of the integrity of the constitution and defeat the purposes of the liquor interests and the two million Reds in this country who would if possible, he said, overthrow the nation as now constituted and reduce this land "to the barbaric horror that is known as Russia."

"America is the hope of the world," he said in conclusion. "It is the dry base from which the armies of temperance may operate to stamp out this terrible curse and enforce means to keep it stamped out throughout the whole world."

MUST RUN BUT WITHOUT CARS

DENVER—The Colorado public utilities commission is anxious for suggestions on how a railroad may be operated without rolling stock or track.

The state supreme court has decided that the Denver, Boulder & Western Railroad "should not be permitted to discontinue operations," but the road ceased operations several months ago, and all its physical property, including rolling stock, locomotives and track, has been sold to Japanese interests and shipped to Japan.

Twenty thousand schools were closed in the United States during the last year because of the shortage of teachers.

GIVES WIFE GLYCERINE MIXTURE

A retired merchant whose wife suffered for years from catarrh of the stomach finally gave her simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. ONE bottle produced great results. Because Adler-i-ka acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel it removes all foul matter which poisoned stomach. Relieves ANY CASE sour stomach or gas on stomach. Often CURES constipation. Prevents appendicitis. — Roberts & Echols, druggists.

German Shipping Is Seeking Ocean Trade In Intensive Degree

Despite lack of tonnage, shortage of coal, labor troubles and a depreciated currency, German shipping interests have begun an intensive campaign to revive pre-war sea trade. Millions of marks have already gone into important shipbuilding contracts.

Hugo Stinnes, reputed to be the wealthiest man in the new republic and a heavy shareholder in a number of shipping companies, is reported to be attempting to extend his influence, which is now the controlling factor in the German East Africa line and the Woermann line, and an important factor in the affairs of the Hamburg-American line.

Regular steamship services with America, South America, East Africa, Mexico, Cuba, Spain, Portugal, Australia and Mediterranean and Scandinavian ports have been re-established, and the North Sea, Baltic and Rhine traffic has assumed a new and lively aspect.

Handicapped by shortage of ships, the Germans have turned their attention to conversions of warships to commercial usages, to construction of motor ships out of sailing vessels and to the study of oil fuel as a substitute for more expensive coal fuel.

Revival of German commerce is indicated by the increased number of ships calling at more important ports. During the first eleven months of 1920, 4369 vessels of a tonnage of 3,892,240 arrived at Hamburg, as compared with 1854 vessels and 1,303,629 tons in 1919 and 13,875 vessels of 13,006,426 tons in the first eleven months of 1913.

The majority of these vessels, however, are sailing under foreign flags.

Our government nospitals contain more than 20,000 veterans of the late war and that number has been increasing for several months at the rate of about 1,000 a month.

Japanese Party Near Split On Navy Issue, So Newspapers Claim

TOKIO—Proposals that Japan agree, with other world powers, to restrict armaments, which were recently submitted to the opposition party by Yukio Ozaki, a prominent member of the organization, have been referred to a special committee of eleven members of the party. It is declared by newspapers here that the proposals threaten to split the party, as many members agree with M. Ozaki's theory, but assert it is impracticable for Japan to curtail her military and naval programs.

It is pointed out by the Kokumin Shimbun that Japan's financial position will not permit her successfully to compete with the United States and England.

M. Ozaki contends that Japanese naval expansion in spite of denials, has had America and Great Britain as its objective, and he has asserted it would ruin the county eventually.

SOLDIERS OPPOSE ELECTION

CAMDEN, N. J.—Fifteen officers of the Third regiment of the New Jersey National Guard resigned because of the election of Howard S. Borden of Oceanic, N. J., a commission merchant, as brigadier-general in command of the entire military forces of the state. It was reported at headquarters here that the rest of the regimental officers would resign. General Borden's election was opposed on the ground that he had not seen service abroad.

HICCOUGH CURE ANNOUNCED

PARIS—At last a simple prevention for the hiccough is announced by one of the most noted of French doctors. Here it is: Place the index finger on the left subclavic hollow several fractions of an inch above the middle clavicle. Then press carefully the fifth cervicylar nerve, whereupon the hiccough will cease.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

C. H. MUHLEMAN OF 222 EAST GARFIELD WRITES BRIEF OUTLINE OF CAREER

In view of the fact that the anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln is near, the following brief outline of his life, prepared by C. H. Muhleman, 222 East Garfield, will, no doubt, prove of interest:

"There is, perhaps, no American, living or dead, who has been the subject of more comment and discussion, by word of mouth or pen, than our own beloved and martyred Lincoln. It would seem that there is nothing left to say.

"Yet the very fact that this is true, is proof that Lincoln appeals to the growing generation more and more, as he is measured by public men of today. He himself was far greater than anything he ever did; and on that basis, when we analyze what he accomplished, we get some idea of his greatness. Yet his greatness was simplicity itself—just doing the task at hand to do, from the standpoint of bettering his fellowman without a thought of self, and always with a sublime faith in humanity and his country.

School Five Miles Away

"Everybody is familiar with Lincoln's humble ancestry. He was born in Hardin county, Kentucky, in 1809. The ramshackle cabin in which he was born was little better than an Indian lodge. The schoolhouse was five miles distant, and the teacher could teach only three subjects—reading, writing and arithmetic. His efforts to get an education were untiring. When he was twenty-one he possessed only six books—'The Bible,' 'Pilgrim's Progress,' 'Aesop's Fables,' 'Arabian Nights,' 'A Life of Washington' and the 'Statutes of Indiana.'

"Knowing the kind of student Lincoln was, we can easily imagine how thoroughly he made the contents of these books his own, and he drew on them freely and often in his later life.

Mother's Wish and Hope

"His mother died when he was 9 years old. Her best wish and hope was that her boy would grow up to be 'wise and good and amount to something in the world;' how fully he fulfilled her wish the whole world knows! The history of his life has furnished the inspiration for many a boy's dream. His Gettysburg speech and his second inaugural address are gems that will live as long as the everlasting hills, and reveal to even the ordinary mind the beautiful character and great heart of Abraham Lincoln. Robert Ingersoll said of Lincoln, 'It is the glory of Lincoln that, having almost absolute power, he never abused it, except on the side of mercy. * * * He knew no fear except the fear of doing wrong. Lincoln was the grandest figure of the fiercest civil war. He is the gentlest memory of our world.'"

REFUSES FOOD, PINES AWAY

POMEROY, Ohio—Attorney Manning S. Webster, who died at his home here several weeks ago at the age of sixty-one, had a small dog, which for fifteen years trailed at his heels.

This dog lay at his feet in the court room day after day, and on Sunday mornings never failed to go to Simpson M. E. church, where its master was teacher of the men's Bible class in Sunday school.

When Mr. Webster became ill the dog took its place under the bed, where it spent most of its time during the three weeks' illness of its master.

The morning Mr. Webster died the dog crept out at a side door and sat on the steps and howled nearly all day.

The dog never went back into the death chamber and refused to eat or to associate with any human being. It is now a mere skeleton and keeps itself hidden about the grounds of the Webster home.

FILMS TO CONVERT HEATHEN

NEW YORK—Armed to the teeth with a complete motion picture outfit and several convincing films, Rev. H. B. Mansell, Methodist missionary, has just sailed from New York for the darkest depths of the Malay peninsula. He has two Biblical pictures with him, dramatizing "The Good Samaritan" and "The Boy Samuel," and believes that he can get the story of his mission to the savages so much more quickly through pictures than earlier missionaries have been able to do through the difficult medium of a strange language.

The Australian natives of the interior wear practically no clothing, though the seasons are extreme compared to that of the coast.

Will Our Legislators Dare Levy $15,000,000 Increase In Your Taxes?

While ECONOMY! is the slogan in the business, industrial and household worlds today, the California State Administration plans a radical continuance of its era of reckless extravagance in state expense.

What Are You Going to Do About it, Mr. Taxpayer?

While you are paying the highest taxes you have known on property, paying after-the-war prices for rent and food and clothing, and striving to keep your head above the wave of expense, the State's Administration at Sacramento plans to add many millions to the already burdensome taxes.

Governor Stephens' expense budget for 1917-1919 was $47,000,000, against Governor Johnson's budget of $36,000,000 in 1915-1917.

While YOU struggle for a plain existence, the State Administration is attempting to force through the California Legislature what is known as the King Bill, a measure to increase the State's expense budget for 1921-1923, to $81,387,692.51.

Governor Stephens and his family of office-holders tell you that the King Bill will increase the state tax upon public utility corporations. But THE PEOPLE WILL HAVE TO PAY IT IN THE END. The King Bill ostensibly will saddle the boost in taxes upon your public utility corporations. But the people will have to pay it, as is borne out in the following statement from the State Railroad Commission appearing in the press January 21:

"In no degree or in any sense do we desire to criticize or pass judgment on the utility of a proposal to increase such taxes on utilities. Owing to the abnormal financial demands of the State the Legislature is compelled to provide approximately $17,000,000 additional revenue. If the Legislature decides that a substantial part of the sum should be secured by increasing the percentage on gross earnings of utilities, a question within its province, then IT BECOMES THE DUTY OF THIS COMMISSION UNDER THE LAW TO ALLOW SUCH TAXES AND OPERATIVE EXPENSE TO BE REFLECTED IN RATES"

That means, Mr., Mrs. and Miss Taxpayer, that YOU will have to pay for public utilities' service—Power, Light, Transportation, Gas, Phones, Banks, Insurance and so forth—plus a charge for the increased state tax on corporations!

What Are You Going to Do About It?

The State Administration has many high-salaried departmental heads and many of the legislators out stumping the State to tell YOU that the public utility corporations are not paying their just tax and that the King Bill's adoption would saddle the increased state expense upon them.

That's Camouflage! Don't Let It Fool You for You Will Have to Pay the Tax in the End!

Your remedy is easy and clear: Write, Telegraph or Phone to Governor Stephens, to members of the Legislature from YOUR district, and to any other members of the Legislature with whom you may have influence, and DEMAND ECONOMY IN STATE AFFAIRS!

Demand that the Governor lop off the State payroll scores of his useless, high-salaried officials!

Demand that the same extreme economy required in YOUR Home and in YOUR Business, be practiced in the State's affairs!

Make it clear that YOU WILL NOT STAND FOR RECKLESS EXTRAVAGANCE!

Then the State Administration WILL NOT DARE TO BOOST ITS EXPENSE PROGRAM, BUT WILL CUT IT, INSTEAD!

AUTO FIRMS CHANGE DATES OF FREE LECTURES SO AS NOT TO CONFLICT

The Glendale Ministerial association, through the columns of The Glendale Evening News, called attention to the fact recently that, as far as possible, no social or other meetings should be held on Wednesday nights, in conflict with the prayer meeting hour.

As one of the results of that announcement, Tanner & Hall, Ltd., dealers in motor cars, 237 South Brand boulevard, yesterday afternoon sent the following self-explanatory communication to the ministerial organization:

"Glendale, Calif., Feb. 9, 1921.

"Glendale Ministerial Association, Glendale, Calif.

"Gentlemen—Our attention has been called to the fact that you have recently re-adopted a resolution requesting that no social or other meetings be held on Wednesday evenings between 7:30 and 8:30 which, as you state, are in conflict with the prayer meeting hour.

"We have been conducting a series of free lectures on 'The Construction and Maintenance of the Motor Car' at our salesroom on Brand boulevard, Wednesday evenings of each week at 8 o'clock, and we assure you that we are willing to hold our lectures on an evening that will not interfere in any way with your prayer services.

"Hereafter, beginning on February 15, 1921, we will give our lectures on Tuesday evenings of each week instead of Wednesday evenings, as heretofore, so that we will not conflict with your prayer meetings.

"We trust that this will meet with your approval, and that our action in this matter may influence other firms and organizations to do likewise.

"Very truly yours,

"TANNER & HALL, LTD.,

BUSINESS GROWS

O. H. BELEW AND RAY GOODE SECURE ADJOINING STORE; NEW DELIVERY AUTO

O. H. Belew and Ray Goode, proprietors of the local "Fanset," 110 East Broadway, have secured a lease on the store building which joins them on the east, which will be used to accommodate their growing business. The tailoring and ladies' fancy pressing departments will be in the new quarters, thus giving room for another presser in the men's department. The inside is being remodeled and decorated while fancy new electric fixtures will adorn the show windows.

A new Dodge car has been added to the delivery system, whose lettering and decoration is of a style not seen before in Glendale. This additional car will enable the firm to give even better service than formerly.

Dodge Delivery Car Attractive

The new Dodge delivery car, known as the panel class, was purchased through the agency of George E. Clayton, 145 South Brand boulevard, and is unusually striking in appearance, the gold background for the lettering being something novel.

The lettering and decoration is the work of William H. Viohl, 358 West Lomita avenue, this city. The car has been attracting much attention in the display room of the Dodge agency.

The proprietors of "Fanset" say that the growth of their business has been truly phenomenal, and according to the partners, the success is due to the fact that their work is always kept above standard, even at a greater cost to themselves, and that this high mark must be maintained on account of their high-class patronage, which will be satisfied with nothing else.

On the ground that German industry would suffer if expert dye workers were allowed to leave, the German government refused passports for two dye experts who were to join the DuPont Company staff in the United States.

THEN AND NOW

ONLY ONE EATING PLACE IN CITY ELEVEN YEARS AGO; DOZEN OR MORE TODAY

A resident of Glendale who has lived here since 1910, was remarking recently on the number of good eating places in the city now, twelve or more, counting lunch rooms, and said that eleven years ago there was but one place where meals or a lunch could be had in Glendale or Tropico, and that was at Mrs. Carroll's. She kept an eating house in a frame building which stood about where the Monarch company's place of business now is.

And by the way, that was the only house on the west side of Brand between the lonely brick building at the southwest corner of Brand and Fourth street, as Broadway was then called, and Dr. Tholen's residence, at the corner of Brand and Tenth street, now Garfield avenue. On the east side of Brand there were six houses, one of them a store building, between the Pacific Electric station and the south city limits of Glendale.

GIRL IS BARTERED FOR FOOD

TULSA, Okla.—The sale of thirteen-year-old Laura Hull by her parents to Yenal Zepila, a thirty-year-old Mexican, was revealed here when welfare workers filed perjury charges against the man. The payment was in food.

Laura's parents, living in an abandoned farm, were nearing starvation with two other minor children, according to welfare workers, when Zepila proposed marriage to the child in return for supporting the family. The parents consented.

Authorities say Zepila gave the girl's age as eighteen when obtaining the marriage license. The perjury charge was based on the alleged misstatement of age. An annulment of the marriage is also asked.

MRS. J. B. CLARKE

TWO PASTORS TAKE PART IN FUNERAL SERVICES; MANY FLORAL OFFERINGS

A funeral attended with unusually sad features was that of Mrs. John B. Clarke of 336 North Maryland avenue, held yesterday afternoon in the Jewel City Undertaking company parlors. Gathered around the casket were mourning husband, six children, the youngest a tiny girl, mother and sister, besides many friends who wished to pay this last tribute of love to one who had been an exemplar of the Christian virtues.

Two Glendale pastors of whose congregations she had been a member at different periods in her Christian life, Rev. Julius Soper, former pastor of the Casa Verdugo Methodist Episcopal church, and Rev. Clyde Monroe Crist, present pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, paid tributes to the memory of the departed and spoke words of comfort to the mourning ones. Then the body, surrounded with beautiful flowers, was reverently borne to its last resting place in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

John B. Clarke, the bereaved husband, has been for several years a popular salesman for a Los Angeles paper company and has many friends throughout this section who deeply sympathize with him in his loss. He is also well known as a singer and a choir director.

PLANS POISON GAS ATTACK

WASHINGTON — The chemical warfare service of the army, in cooperation with the department of agriculture, is preparing to lay down a barrage of poison gas in the cotton districts of the south calculated to exterminate the boll weevil. Brigadier General Amos Freis, chief of the service, said that experiments already conducted promised success. Military gas has already been used against rats in seaport cities and against locusts in the Philippines successfully, he said.

Membership on the Chicago Stock Exchange was sold recently for the lowest in years. The price was $5,000.
